

Zacchaeus Gives to the Poor

Luke 19:1-10 (Paraphrased)

Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. He wanted to see Jesus. When Jesus saw him he said, "I must stay at your house today." The people complained saying, "Look at the kind of man Jesus is staying with. Zacchaeus is a sinner!" But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I gave half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

I have no need of a bull from your stall or of goats from your pens, for every animal of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird in the mountains, and the insects in the fields are mine. If I were hungry I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
