

Philip and the Ethiopian

An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip. The angel said, "Get ready and go south on the road that goes through the desert."

So Philip went. On the road he saw a man from Ethiopia.

Now he was on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot reading from the book of Isaiah the prophet.

The Spirit said to Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it." So he went and he heard the man reading from Isaiah the prophet. Philip asked him, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

The man answered, "How can I understand? I need someone to explain it to me."

Then he invited Philip to climb in and sit with him

The official said to Philip, "Please, tell me, who is the prophet talking about? Is he talking about himself or about someone else?" Philip began to speak. He started with this same Scripture and told the man the Good News about Jesus.

While they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The official said, "Look, here is water! What is stopping me from being baptized?" Then the official ordered the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the official went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

ACTS 2:21

Use the clues to find the words from the verse and write them in the dashes. Then use the boxed letters to finish the sentence.

Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.
